Details:

This attractive apartment is located a few steps from the sea, in the heart of La Caleta, one of the most valued areas of Costa Adeje for its authentic character, its caring atmosphere and its proximity to cafes, restaurants, services and the promenade. A truly privileged location, ideal for those who want to live the day to day life on foot.

The property is located on a high floor and enjoys pleasant sea views. It has been completely renovated with high quality materials and finishes, has air conditioning and has 2 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms and a large living space that integrates living room, dining room and open concept kitchen, creating a bright and well proportioned environment. It also has a practical interior storage room.

One of the main assets of the apartment is its large terrace, with open views to the sea and sun all day long - also equipped with awning for those who prefer shaded areas. This outdoor space brings plenty of natural light to the interior and becomes a very pleasant extension of the house, ideal for enjoying outdoor living and the exceptional climate of this area of the island throughout the year.

The Bahia La Caleta complex has a recently renovated communal swimming pool and a pleasant sun terrace. In addition, the property includes an additional storage room within the complex itself.

It should be noted that the photographs do not fully reflect the quality and feel of the property, so it is recommended to arrange a visit to appreciate it as a whole. Do not hesitate to contact us today.
