Details:

The 'House of the Painter' on the outskirts of the village of Calvià is a masterful blend of an old, historic Mallorcan house together with contemporary architecture. It is now offered as a colonial-style manor house with 5 bedrooms, all with bathrooms and private south-facing balconies.

The house was constructed to the highest eco-standards for insulation, solar energy consumption, and water recycling. Underfloor heating and fully-integrated hot/cold air conditioning are fitted throughout the property, and ample parking and a garage are available.

The house is spread over 2 levels. Next to the entrance area is an annex housing the open kitchen and the living room, and also situated on this level are 2 bedrooms, each with bathroom en suite, and a laundry room. A floor above are a further 3 bedrooms with private balconies, and a second living room. From the breathtaking communal areas there is access to the 14 metre-long pool.

The original painter's house now houses a very spacious and modern farmhouse kitchen.
