Details:

This charming and ancient finca is located in one of the most idyllic spots in Esporles. It's historical past is well documented over time and even dates back to the third century AD. Subsequently, there are records of the property in times of Moorish domination, during the recovery by King James of Aragon and even in the eighteenth century Archduke books .

From the mid-eighteenth century to the present, the finca has faithfully maintained its character as a Majorcan manor house as well as retaining its agricultural and livestock activities.

The building of approximately 800 sqm, consists of 2 wings and 2 floors, in which there are 7 bedrooms, 4 bathrooms, a shower room, 3 kitchens, 2 dining rooms, one separate room designated as an art gallery, one workshop and a storage cellar. It also has a separate studio 90 of sqm and three buildings intended for tool storage.

The plot, of about 30 hectares, has an olive centenary, growing grasses, almond, oak, pine and shrub trees. The property has telephone, running water, natural well, electricity and heating.

Outside, there is a large garden, pond, swimming pool and beautiful terraces from which you can enjoy wonderful views of the Bay of Palma.

A particularly charming property with authentic Majorcan character and located in a privileged area.

Location & surrounding area:

Esporles is situated in the mountains of the Tramuntana and has about 4.000 inhabitants, not far away from Palma, Valldemosa and Banyalbufar on the west coast. In earlier times the textile industry was an important element of the economy, today it is more agriculture and stock-farming and of course tourism. A walk through the village is always worthwhile.
