Details:

This rural building plot is ideally situated on the outskirts of the charming village of Consell and is surrounded by a wonderful tree population. It is connected to mains electricity and has its own water source and 3 water cisterns. Two smaller adjoining plots are also offered for sale if desired.

The lovely old finca has 2 floors and offers ample space and design possibilities within a living space of approx. 300 sqm. The roof of the existing building has already been renovated.

According to current building regulations this exceptional property can be turned into a beautiful country-house providing magnificent views of the Tramuntana mountains!
