From the master bedroom there is access to a large terrace with views over the garden and Palma's coast, and from here steps lead up to the roof terrace, the perfect place to enjoy the unique Mallorcan sunsets.

The lowest level, with an area of 92 sqm consists of a fitness studio with natural light, a laundry room, a storage room, and an open garage with space for up to 3 vehicles.

Further features of this modern villa include a staircase with 8 metre-high glass elements in the entrance area, integrated hot/cold air conditioning throughout the house, a bioethanol fireplace in the living area, an integrated hidden induction hob, a decalcifying system, an alarm with video surveillance system, and a ceiling projector in the living room.
