Details:

This Menorcan town house has retained its original character, and is situated in a small side street very near to the town hall. It has a living space of 185 sqm.

Its entrance is on the first floor and reached via steps. To the rear of the house is the kitchen with fireplace and dining area and a lovely green patio. From here an outside staircase leads up to the roof terrace. Next to the kitchen is a WC and a laundry room. A long hallway leads past a bathroom and a dressing room into the large salon which is adjoined by a bedroom. Another staircase leads to the 2nd floor with 2 double bedrooms, one of which is very large with high, sloping ceiling and wooden beams, and the other is furnished with a double bed.
