Location & surrounding area:

Los Abrigos is a charming fishing village on the southern coast of Tenerife, known for its relaxed atmosphere and picturesque harbor. The village is located about 10 kilometers south of Playa de las Américas and is a popular spot for both locals and tourists alike.

The narrow, winding alley leads to the small harbor where colorful fishing boats are anchored, and fresh fish is sold directly from the boats. The surroundings are characterized by traditional Canary houses with white facades and red-tiled roofs. Along the promenade, visitors will find numerous restaurants and bars serving delicious seafood and local specialties.

The landscape around Los Abrigos features gentle hills and green areas, providing a beautiful contrast to the blue Atlantic Ocean. The beach itself is rather small but ideal for a relaxing day by the water or for walks along the coast. Overall, Los Abrigos exudes a peaceful, authentic atmosphere that is perfect for relaxation and enjoyment in a typical Canary environment.
