Location & surrounding area:

Buzanada is a town located in the municipality of Arona, in southern Tenerife, known for its residential character, peaceful atmosphere, and strong Canarian identity. It is a community that combines the essence of traditional island life with the development and amenities typical of a constantly evolving area.

Its strategic location allows residents to enjoy a setting away from the hustle and bustle of the main tourist areas, without sacrificing good access to other points of interest in southern Tenerife. Its proximity to towns such as Valle San Lorenzo, Cabo Blanco, and Las Galletas provides easy access to a wide variety of services, shops, schools, and recreational facilities.
Buzanada retains a close-knit, family-friendly atmosphere, where traditions, neighborly camaraderie, and the warm hospitality of its residents are integral to its identity. Furthermore, its surroundings offer a blend of rural landscapes, residential areas, and views characteristic of Tenerife's volcanic terrain.

Thanks to these characteristics, Buzanada is an attractive option both for those seeking to make their permanent home in the south of the island and for those who value tranquility, accessibility, and a high quality of life.

In short, Buzanada is a town that strikes a balance between tradition and modernity, maintaining its unique character while offering a pleasant environment in which to live, grow, and enjoy Tenerife.
