Details:

This building plot is situated between the towns of Capdepera and Cala Ratjada on a south-west facing slope, and has a size of 32.625 sqm.

It presents panoramic views from the mountains of Arta over the castle of Capdepera and the sea as far as Menorca.

Surrounded by natural-stone walls, the upper part of the terraced plot invites with centuries-old stone oak trees, while on the lower part there is good farming land, ideal for horses or wine-growing.

A building application exists which foresees a detached house with up to 320 sqm living space plus pool and terraces, allowing a border around the plot of 10 metres.

Water and waste-water connections already exist, and a well could be drilled if required.

Architect's plans are in existence and the construction plans can be taken over.

Location & surrounding area:

You can recognize Capdepera from far away because of its castle and the medieval buildings which are inside the castle walls. A widely known medieval market takes place every year which is worth a visit. To the municipality of Capdepera belong also the villages Cala Ratjada, Cala Mezquida and Canyamel
