Details:

This wonderful countryside building plot is situated in an attractive, tranquil location in Son Valls near to Felanitx. It offers the perfect place to fulfill your dream to build a finca in Mallorca, according to your own wishes and expectations. According to the current building regulations construction would be possible, and we would be pleased to assist with the choice of architect and construction company if required.

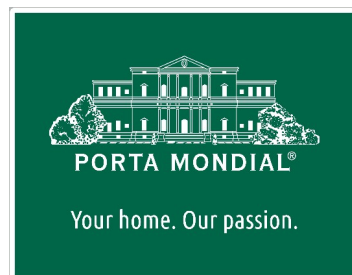

The 28.264 sqm plot is well-accessible and contains a beautiful established tree population, and provides spectacular views of the monastery of San Salvador and the mountains. Standing on the land is a small natural-stone casita with a water cistern, and according to the owner of the land a mains-electricity connection would be possible.

For those seeking privacy and tranquillity, this building plot would provide the perfect place.

Please do not hesitate to contact us for further information.
